Trash Pickup on Holiday Schedule

Wednesday is July 4th, so there will be a one-day delay in trash pickup.

Fireworks Laws in Arizona

Skyrockets, bottle rockets, firecrackers, Roman candles and aerals are not permitted under Arizona law because of their ability to detonate in the air. Residents may use ground spinners, sparkling-wheel devices and fountain shaped fireworks on their own property from June 24 - July 6. Residents of EE are aware of fire danger and unlikely to disturb your peace with fireworks, but having a hose with a pressure nozzle at the ready is never a bad idea.

Fiber Arts Inside Again

Fiber Artists will resume their gatherings in the cool comfort of Jane's house this Thursday at 1 PM. You don't have to be working on a project to attend, just come for some social time.

Movie Night

Pre-empted by July 4th this week, but the movie on July 11 at the Ramada at 7:15 PM will be Darkest Hour, starring Gary Oldman as Winston Churchill; it is an account of his early days as Prime Minister, as Nazi Germany's Wehrmacht swept across Western Europe, threatening to defeat the United Kingdom. Thanks to Jane and Eric Ellingson for sponsoring this event. Note that the movies will now be starting at 7:15 since it remains too light at 7:00.

Palm Trimming

Because of the fire hazard posed by tall palms with dry fronds and the frequent lightning strikes that come with our monsoon weather pattern, and the Board-imposed deadline of June 30 for homeowners to have their tall palms trimmed now past, the EE Board will be arranging for trimming of any tall palms at a cost to be paid by the property owner of $80.00/tree.

Big Cat Alert

Bobcats have been spotted in the neighborhood recently. A neighborhood dog was apparently attacked by one when he wandered out alone to the back yard through his doggy door one evening.
